

Curriculum Vitae

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Name	Maurice Jansen
Company Name	STC B.V.
Company Address	Lloydstraat 300, 3024 EA Rotterdam- NL PO Box 63140, 3002 JC Rotterdam- NL
Telephone	+31 10 4486087 / +31 6 20283925
Fax	-
E-mail	m.jansen@stc-r.nl
Nationality	Netherlands
Date of Birth	18-06-1974

CURRENT POSITION

Innovation Senior Manager, Research and Development

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Institution: Erasmus University Rotterdam
Date: 29 August 1997
Degree: Master of Science / Business Administration. Major: Strategic Management

PERSONAL SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

Maurice is pragmatic with an international mindset and wide network. Maurice is a reliable, diligent, with an analytical mind, who combines subject-matter expertise and creativity with result orientation. Maurice is recognized for his knowledge of supply chain management, logistics, port strategy and shipping. He is valued for his attention to detail, his commitment to finding the optimal solution for clients as well as his coaching skills with regards to students during their thesis projects.

Languages

	- Ability to read	- Ability to write	- Ability to speak
Dutch	Native	Native	Native
English	Fluent	Fluent	Fluent
French	Basic	Basic	Basic
German	Basic	Basic	Basic

SOCIAL SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

TECHNICAL SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

MSWord, MSExcel, MSPowerPoint

ARTISTIC SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

-

MEMBERSHIP OF PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES	Havenvereniging Rotterdam / Association of Port Professionals Rotterdam
WORK EXPERIENCE
Date:	: 2006 – today
Location	: Rotterdam / the Netherlands
Company	: STC-Group
Position	: Senior Manager Innovation, Research & Development
Description	Knowledge and research projects in the field of port strategy, supply chain management. Development of high end port and maritime management education courses and case studies for STC-Group and its overseas' partners and clients. Maurice develops cases for educational purposes, gives lectures, is course coordinator and thesis supervisor to Master students in the field of port strategy, port governance, hinterland logistics and supply chain management. 2014 – today; Visiting researcher at Erasmus Smart Port Rotterdam Research on port partnerships for inclusive development. 2007 – 2012: STC-Group / Netherlands Maritime University; Maurice was the first head of Netherlands Maritime University of Applied Sciences and responsible for curriculum development, recruitment and selection of team of lecturers as well as for the execution of the Master Shipping and Transport program at STC-Group's main campus in Rotterdam as well as at STC-Korea, a branch school of the STC-Group. Maurice established and maintained an ISO9001-2008 certified quality management system for the education provision under the (STC-NMU). In 2012 he ensured NVAO re-accreditation of the Master Shipping and Transport program. 2013-2014: Transition Master Shipping and Transport; Transition towards a case driven approach to University education. The following case studies are developed: port internationalisation case, hinterland strategy case, hinterland modal shift case, port operations case, terminal management case. This also includes a study trip to Port of Sohar
Management responsibility
Project management	2013: Centre of Expertise Mainport Innovation Project member for the establishment of Centre of Expertise Mainport Innovation at Rotterdam University of Applied Sciences. 2012-2013: Pressure Cooker 'Ports and Maritime'; A creative co-production by students, lecturers and professionals to crack maritime and port related challenges of today and tomorrow. 50 students, 20 lecturers and 40 professionals gathered together at the Maritime Museum and Harbour Museum in Rotterdam to brainstorm over

	7 challenges and to come up with innovative ideas and solutions. The event was organised by the education institutions STC-Group, Rotterdam University in cooperation with Inholland University of Applied Sciences as an activity of 'HBO in de Haven' and 'Proeftuin Maritieme Innovatie' and sponsored by (a.o.) Port of Rotterdam. 2010-2014: HBO in de Haven; This programme aims to bring higher education and the port closer together. The aim is to involve more students and young professionals in the port and port related activities by means of short internships, projects, masterclasses and talent events. Partners are: Rotterdam University, Inholland, STC-Group, Port of Rotterdam, Association of Young Port Professionals and Deltalinqs. Maurice initiated the Masterclass series, a knowledge-driven network event for young port professionals. 2007-2008: Maurice Jansen was responsible for daily project management for the establishment, accreditation and implementation of STC-Korea as the first accredited Foreign Educational Institution in Korea. 2006-2007: In his position as Senior Project Manager at STC-Group, he was part of the project team who successfully filed for accreditation of the Master degree program 'Shipping and Transport'. Subsequently he became the executing manager for the new department and program.
Date	: 2002 – 2006
Location	: Schiphol-Rijk / the Netherlands
Company	: UTi Worldwide
Position	: Senior Consultant
Description	Supply chain solutions design / implementation and business development for key accounts, primarily in Europe. Strategic value assessments for optimizing the logistics performance of key accounts Consulting skills course design and execution
Date:	: 1998 – 2002
Location	: Rotterdam / Utrecht
Company	: KPMG Consulting N.V. / Transport & Distribution / World Class Finance
Position	: Consultant Logistics, supply chain management, finance
Description	: Project management, coordination, execution
Date:	: 1997
Location	: Rotterdam

	Company	:	ERASM Business Support Centre, Erasmus University Rotterdam
	Position	:	Internship, Junior Consultant
	Description	:	Student assistant for MISTER project, Researcher for project NS Cargo
DIDACTICAL EXPERIENCE
	Date	Institution / Company	Courses
	2008-today	STC-Group / Netherlands Maritime University of Applied Sciences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Curriculum development and overall coordinator Master Shipping and Transport - Case study coordinator and lecturer 'Ports in international perspective' - Course coordinator and lecturer for the module Supply Chain Management - Course coordinator Management & Research Skills based on Skills Sheets approach - Facilitator for serious games SIMPORT MV2, Europort Game, Beer Game
	2004 – 2006	Uti Worldwide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Course development and trainer for the modules International Project Management, Consulting Skills
RESEARCH EXPERIENCE
	Date	Institution / Company	Item
	2014 – today	Erasmus Smart Port Rotterdam	Visiting researcher: Research on partnerships in port development. This research is set up to develop and test a framework for sustainable port development in which an holistic approach is taken on port capacity development.
	2007 – today	STC-Group / Netherlands Maritime University of Applied Sciences	Thesis coordinator: setting up research guidelines, maintain standards for Master thesis and coordinate students' thesis projects. Initiator and coordinator for knowledge network events 'Masterclass Shipping and Transport' in cooperation with Association for Young Port Professionals. Speaker at international conferences and masterclasses.
SPECIFIC COUNTRY EXPERIENCE
	Year	Country	Description
	2015	Colombia	Course development for Centre of Expertise Ports and Logistics in partnership with the Universidad del Norte, Barranquilla
	2014	Oman	Research project 'Port strategy' with Master students of Netherlands Maritime University
	2008 - 2012	South-Korea	Course director Master Shipping and Transport at branch school STC-Korea (living in Netherlands)
	2011-2013	Latvia	Guest lectures at Latvian Maritime Academy, Bachelor's Port and Shipping

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

2006 – 2008

South-Korea

As Senior Project Manager he was responsible for the establishment and implementation of STC-Korea as the first accredited Foreign Educational Institution in Korea.

1998-2006

Several countries in Europe, USA, South-Africa

Various logistics performance improvement and modal shift projects for shippers and logistics companies. Conducting of a number of sectoral studies on future development of mainports Rotterdam and Schiphol Airport. Strategic value assessments for global freight forwarders, agricultural equipment manufacturing company, tender management relating to logistics contracts for multinationals, project management for implementation of freight forwarding contracts.

Publications:

- Ports of partnerships ,Port Strategy, January/February 2015
- Setting sail overseas - insight into internationalisation strategies of ports, Port Strategy, October 2013
- Turning Tides; port reform in Spanish ports (2013) in Port Strategy, Emilio Bustos, Maurice Jansen
- Port planning from a Rotterdam perspective (2011), Maurice Jansen, at International Symposium of Global Port Demand and Future Prospects, Korean Maritime Institute, Seoul, Korea.
- Port of Rotterdam, a world class port preparing for the future (2010), at International Seminar "Changing logistics environment and vitalization of PyeongTaek Port", Pyeongtaek, Korea.
- Maritime education as the cornerstone for development of integrated European maritime cluster (2011), Roberts Gailitis, Maurice Jansen, conference proceedings: 14th international conference "Maritime Transport and Infrastructure (2011), Riga, Latvia.
- Development of the Latvian maritime policy; a maritime cluster approach (2010) / Roberts Gailitis, Maurice Jansen (thesis summary paper), Conference proceedings: "12th international conference "Maritime Transport and Infrastructure"
- Sustainable development of Latvian maritime human resource development; a maritime cluster approach (English, Latvian) / Maurice Jansen, Roberts Gailitis (2009), Conference proceedings "11th international conference "Maritime Transport and Infrastructure".
- Training for trade / Maurice Jansen in: Ports and Harbours (2007).
- Performance Indicators in Logistics (Dutch) / Maurice Jansen, Raymond Gillon in Transportvisie (2001).
- Logistics outsourcing requires partnering (Dutch) / Maurice Jansen, Karim El-Khetabi in Logistiek Krant (2000).
- Logistics partnerships require new strategies for logistics companies (German) / Maurice Jansen in Deutsche Verkehrszeitung (2000).
- Outsourcing logistics; status, issues and trends in partnerships (1999) / Maurice Jansen, Peter Magill; Results of a market survey among over 200 European shippers providing insights in the development of logistics partnerships which is illustrated with a number of statistics and graphs.